

Forming the conscience of the world.

History education on totalitarianism and genocide

	Host	Mode	Duration	Start time (CEST)
12 May (Friday)
Totalitarianism	ITEP staff	individual	30 minutes
Focus on Rafał Lemkin - concept book	ITEP staff	individual	30 minutes
"So we're at war"	IP Film Production Team	individual (film)	70 minutes
Introduction		presentation	15 min	5.00 PM
BREAK			15 minutes
Why teach about totalitarianism and genocide? Role of history education in shaping the "conscience of the world"		workshop + discussion	90 minutes	5.30 PM
BREAK			15 minutes
The need for precision in classroom and public space - defining totalitarianism and genocide		seminar	60 minutes	7.15 PM
			END	8.15 PM
13 May (Saturday)
The outbreak of the war and Poland under two occupations	ITEP staff	individual (text)	30 minutes
The end of occupation?	ITEP staff	individual (text)	30 minutes
Nazi German and Soviet policy towards Polish citizens	John Cornell, PhD	individual (video)	30 minutes
"The day after"	IP Film Production Team	individual (film)	70 minutes
Nazism in practise – German policy and terror in occupied Poland		workshop	90 minutes	3.00 PM
BREAK			15 minutes
Communism in practise – Soviet policy and terror in occupied Poland		workshop	90 minutes	4.45 PM
BREAK			15 minutes
Post-War Dilemmas - educational game with a discussion of how embody a character and take decisions. Complexity of the past		workshop	90 minutes	6.30 PM
			END	8.00 PM
14 May (Sunday)
Teneta	Lemkin Center	individual (film)	30 minutes
Keynote Lecture - the continuity of imperial Russia's policy		presentation	60 minutes	1.00 PM
BREAK			15 minutes
Lemkin Center presentation and Q&A		presentation	15 minutes	2.15 PM
Russian invasion of Ukraine in personal testimonies		workshop	60 minutes	2.30 PM
BREAK			15 minutes
Group work on sources - design an activity How to use personal testimonies in history education?		workshop	90 minutes	3.45 PM
BREAK			15 minutes
Panel discussion: What can history teach us? The fragile link between the past and the present		discussion	90 minutes	5.30 PM
			END	7.00 PM